Hongkong, June 10, 1889. 1124

captain and crew of the steamer Albatross have added a notable chapter to the history of heroic deeds performed by seamen. The ship caught fire in the ocean; but for five weeks Captain and his sailors fought against the terrible monster. In 1877, when at the ship safely into the harbor, the transport San Jacinto, with 300 men and 15th Regiment on board, was saved in the same way. A fire broke out there when she was 400 miles from the port, and for twelve-four days the port, quarter and mainmast were lost. The ship was saved by an explosion of gunpowder. Captain, however, kept the ship afloat; and, eight days' sailing in a heavy sea, the mariners without the loss of a single man, landed at Rio Janeiro. The Brazilian Government has decided to present a gold medal to Captain Robertson in recognition of his heroic deed; but this cannot be his only reward.

London, May 13th.—Henry George speaking in the Black Country with success, and his lectures have led the process into heated discussions of his theory.

of $30,000, and delaying the completion and opening of the dock at least a year or more," said the president of the kind that has occurred kind of the kind that has occurred kind of the kind that has occurred.

The West End had all excitement that morning when it became known that the police at an early hour had raided the Adelphi Club Field docks, as well as several other places, and had arrested a number of persons in the act of gambling. Among them, Adelphi Club 46 persons, including sportsmen, actors, lawyers, etc., were arrested, 45 of whom were taken to the Bow Street Magistrate's Court, where they were held in adaptation. At the Field, Clive Street, the police made another large haul of gamblers, gentlemen and noblemen; including one sitting peer. The prisoners were supplied with food by their friends, and with the exception of a few of the club officials, who subsequently released on bail. They were remanded for a week.
